DIBROOKLYN NEWS.

He Died Soon Afterwards.

Thomas Brannigan, a wealthy recluse

as "Lemone" Brannigan, died in St.

Vilence in a Police Court.

Taxen to St. Peter's Hospital, Where s locused of Assaulting Will. amsburg Little Girls.

when Te Was Arrestel, an Angry Mo Wanted to Lysch Him. the First and Fifth wards, and who was known to the children of that locality

LOVES ONCE, NOT NOW.

mer Engagement with Buck. Miss inle V. Ullmer, of 119 Sands street tooklyn, had her former sweetheart, corge Buck, of 748 Sixth avenue, at John and Eliza Lindlow in the Esx Market Court this morning in an fort to find out what it was that Lillow told Buck about her that caused Buck to break off their en-Engerat. Lindle denied having said anything againstiiss Ullmer's character. Justic Simmons endeavored to bring the love together again, but failed.

Jumed on a Moving "L" Train.

John iderson, seventy, of 271 Fifty-third freet, lightyn, attempted to board an elevated rain at gird avenue and Porticih street, Brook disjoining just as the cars were moving an Down an Old Man.

WillianO'Brien was held in the Lee Avenue 'Miamsburg, to-day to await the result M Wills McCutchlery injuries. O'Brien was fruing sone-burse truck along Kent avenua-fruing sone-burse truck along Kent avenua-sess images, this morning, when he ran over McCutchl, who is sixty years of age and feeble. The injust man is in the Eastern District Hos-pital in critical condition.

FLATS, To Rent or Wanted

Advertised in To-Morrov's World Go

FREE IN MONDAY'S WORLD.

Ner-WOMEN CURSED HIM. DID ALD BRANNIGAN STARVE? GONE TO KILL REDMEN

Mi han Geiser Threatened with The Wealthy Miser Found Uncon- Charles Martin Leaves His Brooksceus in His Wretched Home. lyn Home for the Far West.

pended to Support Indians.

ind miser, who was a very well-known The Police Requested to Look for Him West of the Mississippl.

rillian Geiser, a shabiliy-dressed of n. Willian Geiser, a shabiliy-dressed of night. To-day Coroner Kene ordered in he Ewen Street Court, Willian County Physician Shepard to make an instruction of the Far West will do night. To-day Coroner Kene ordered well to stick pretty closely to their Lake Shore 1-2, to 128 1-2; Missouri teservations for the next few weeks. Pacific 5-8, to 28 3-4; North American autopsy on the body to determine the and when they go out at night to attend LXX. conferences or enjoy a "quiet LXX. conferences or enjoy a "quiet lington & Quincy 1-4, to 74 1-8, and Kangame" at their club they should travel sas & Texas pref. 1-2, to 22.

The allegation had been made of the existence of collusion, as all the fields in the district are brightly illuminated, for which the taxp-yers had to bear. It was shown that there was a gas-lamp for shown the lights in cornitelist, half a mile from any house.

Mr. Furgueson displayed much anxiety. His memory was defective on many points. He acknowledged that he submitted the proposed specifications to President J. K. O. Sherwood, of the Gas Company, before the Board adopted the submitted the proposed specifications called for the erection of a gas plant, but Mr. Sherwood suggested that this portion be omitted, as a subsequent Board of the contending parties are out together trouble is feared.

The police and to-day at Lanc's shoc factory, Fifth avenue and Sterling place, Brooklyn, where the hands went on strike yesterday. This is the second strike there within six weeks. The men who went out yester day were shown went out at the first strike. There are about eighty of the past several weeks, have esting between them and the proposed specifications called for the contending parties are out together trouble is feared.

The police on duty all night. During the discharge of two men. Now that both of the contending parties are out together trouble is feared.

Police Captain Early had a detachment of police on duty all night. During the discharge of the nick company are are police on duty all night. During the form whose places they filled.

The fellows of the nick company are as follows? I evident. Dwight N. Smith, and did not think it strange or unusual that he should make suggestions.

On cross-examination, he said that no company the strikers, and the police were as follows? I evident. Dwight N of people who visit the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., are many who are sent here, by those who have already, from personal experience, learned of the mined.

The factory people expect to bring a third gang of workmen to the factory the first of the week. The strikers say the men will never reach there alive, and as an extra precaution the police guard will be doubled. Ex-Sesretary of the Navy Tracy sp-cared in the interests of the Gas

ACCUSED OF ABDUCTION.

John King and a Woman Held on a Girl's Complaint.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., Oct. 6 .-Policeman Owen Kavanagh to-day, on complaint of Maggie Luthier, aged sixteen, of Fourth street, Woodside, areight years old. and Effic Wilson, article wenty-one, on the charge of abduction. Maggie said she was introduced to King by Effic, and that she accompanied him to places of amusement. She alleges on Oct. 3 he took her to a house on Broadway, Astoria, where she was detained all night against her will.

King and Effic Wilson were held for examination by Justice Ingram in the Long Island Police Court to-day. King says Maggie told him she was seventeen vears old, and claims she accompanied him voluntarily. He says Efficient of the ways of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife.

RUPTURE, or Breach (Hernia) is radiative and without pain. Trusses can be attroved and without pain. Trusses can be attroved as a second without pain. rested John King, a bricklayer, twenty-TUMORS Ovarian, Fibroid (Uterine) and Belectrolysis and other conservative means and thereby cutting operations are avoided.

PILE TUMORS, however large, Fiscassof the lower bowel, are permunently cured without pain or resort to the knife.

RUPTURE, or Breach (Hernia) is radically cured without pain. Trusses can be thrown away!

STONE in the Bladder, no matter how smaked out and safely removed without cutting. Schoutan Held Without Bail. port Richmond, B. I., Oct. 6.—John Schoutan, tailor, suspected of wholesale incendiariam, was committed by Justice Mullen to-day to the county jail at Richmond without ball, to await the action of the Grand Jury. District-Autorack Pittgeraid as is he has a strong case against Schoutan. PORT RICHMOND, S. I., Oct. 4.-John Schou

STOCK MARKET WAS STRONG. ACCUSED OF FRAUD. "DEBENTURE" BONDS. MURDER IN A HOTEL.

Prices Opened Higher and Held President Negley Arrested on A. Coffin & Stanton's Creditors Are Fagin Claims that the Man He Firm to the End. H. King's Complaint.

Upward Movement.

Stocks made a very general advance this morning. The volume of business was by no means large, but the fact that

Representations.

The Locomotive Man Alleges False Rumor that Receiver Erb's Remoyal Has Been a Hospital Nurse and Is He Thinks Too Much Meney Is Ex- the rise brought out only limited offerings frightened the shorts who were disposed to cover.

There are indications that certain operators with builish proclivities took advantage of the recent decline to accumulate a line of stocks and are now waging war on the shorts. Western Union rose 1 1-8, to 89 3-8; and the second s	as "Lemons" Brannigan, died in St.	Harrison and the second	American Sugar pref. 1-2, to 32; Chicago		And the second s

	Willian Geiser, a shabilly-dressed of	Peter's Hospital in Brooklen late last	The Indians of the Far West will do	Gas 1 5-8, to 75 5-8; Distillers 3-4, to 10 3-8;	action brought against him by Aibert H. King, President of the King Locoman, who gives his age as hity, was	night. To-day Coroner Kene ordered	well to stick pretty closely to their reservations for the next few weeks,	Lake Shore 1-2, to 136 1-2; Missouri	motive Works, of New Jersey.	have been almost entirely removed sir held in he gwel on thre charges of	County Physician Shepard to make an autopsy on the body to determine the	and when they go out at night to attend	Pacific 5-8, to 28 3-4; North American 1-2, to 4 3-8; Reading 1-2, to 19 3-8; Rus-	He alleges that Negley secured $3,000	yesterday, and men are taking do-control restault.	cause of death.	LXX. conferences or enjoy a "quiet	lington & Quincy 1-4, to 74 1-8, and Kan-		the brass railings and bookeases. I a crowe of women wen in court, and	Brannigan had frequently figured in	game" at their club they should travel	sas & Texas pref. 1-2, to 22.	King swears that about October, 1899, his Company desired to sell $300,000	erything indicates that the moving we calculated on before the receivers sten he was brought at before the	the newspapers. He was eighty-two years old, but strong and active for his age.	in squads and be well "heeled."	Bay State Gas, which has been one of the		became known.
	and cursed him vigrously. Then	He came to America from Ireland when		active specialties in the Boston market, and which was placed in the unlisted	trust mortgage on the Company's prop-	There were many callers at the offi say made a rush for hm, but a num-	very young and settled in the lower part		department of the Stock Exchange this	erty.	and they stood about amid the dust a per of court officers proteted the cower-	of New York. Then he moved over to	10/2/2	morning, opened at 30 3-8, fell to 30, rose to 32 and reacted to 31.	* About that time, he alleges, Negley called on him and represented himself	dirt incident to the tearing up things, waiting to see Receiver Erb ellored order, after a viprous use of the	Brooklyn, and had lived in the vicinity of his last residence for over sixty years.	E P	Money 1 per cent, on call and 2½ a 3½ on time. Foreign exchange firm at	as President of the Mexican Trust and	some of the firm.
	Geiser has no home, jut of late has	Brannigan peddled lemons until a few years ago, when he retired to look after		4.85 3-4 a 4.86 for bankers' 60-day bills and 4.86% a 4.87 for sight drafts.	Investment Company, and that he could robably sell the bonds of the King Com-	The receivership was something of
	been living is a vacant actory building	his real estate. His wife died many		Commercial bar silver rose to 63%.	pany to the Investment Company.	surprise to Wall street, but new this a fact, it is learned that a number 7	belongen to the owners Detective-Ser-	years ago, leaving one child, a daugh- ter. She had lost her husband, and with	FR 57	while Mexican dollars are unchanged at 514. Bar silver in London advanced to	On various occasions after that, it is alleged by Mr. King, that Negley re-	of the leading banks have for some ti
	geant John Becker herd that the out	her two children went to live with the old man, as his housekeeper, in his		29 5-16d, per ounce and it is reported that	ported progress in his efforts to sell the bonds, and finally said that his company	had numerous inquiries from th
1	there, and secured a varrant for his	stuffy apartments in the basement of	- C - P	made on a liberal scale for the account	had decided to buy the bonds.	country customers as to the reliabil last evening Becker alled at the fac-	an old frame house at 180 Pearl street. The old man had invested his savings		of Japan. The bank statement shows a loss of	that his company had deposited $50,000	which the firm were putting out my for the purpose chrresting Gelier. Wien the old man lefned the officer's	mostly in tenement-house property. He was very stingy, and it is said that the		$1,340,875 in surplus reserve, partly be-	in Parts to close the purchase of the bonds, and that it would be necessary	over New England. The particular thing which the co-
	emind he picked up a nort fron bar and enteavored to brain in. There was a	little family frequently for days at a	The same of the sa	cause of an expansion of $2,716,200 in loans and partly on account of a loss	for him (Negley) to go to London and	sel for the creditors is trying to find this morning is what the "American
9	deste neht for a tire as Geiser B a	time had no other food than a loaf of stale bread. Sometimes the old man		of about $600,000 in cash. The banks now hold $59,450,932 in excess of the 25	Paris to close the transaction. He asked Mr. King to lend him $3,000 to cover his	Peterture Company" consists of was upon the notes of this concern the
MA I	sorn by dissipation, thile Becker is an	refused even to buy that. One night, about eighteen months ago.		per cent. legal requirement. The loss in reserves is looked upon	expenses abroad. Mr. King loaned him the money.	the firm obtained loans for la
5/A	amateur athlete of printhence.	Brannigan came home and scolded his	24	favorably, as it indicates more active	Since then. Mr. King says, Negley's representations were false. He says	amounts. With each loan it was the
WAA.		daughter for being extravagant. Angry words were exchanged, and the old man		employment of money for legitimate purposes.	that the Mexican Trust and Investment	some worth, along with a lot of Debenture bonds him out of the building. While wating for the patrol wagonto arrive the growd	ended the quarrel by ordering her to leave the house. She begged him to		The following are the comparative fig-	Company has no financial standing, and that, in fact, it merely exists on paper:	The latter have no guarantee of allow her to remain; she had been in		Sept. 28. Oct. 6. Increase Loans $497,561,000 $500,277,200 $2,716,200	also that the negotiations which Negley alleged to have carried on never oc-	than that of Coffin & Stanton these bonds there are at present o
	deire to lynch hil. "The only troub! with them," said	poor health and had no money to hire a room, but her father was obdurate.	"	Specie $2,010,500 $2,215,190 204,600	curred, and that $50,000 was never de-	standing about $200,000 Worth. 13
E-1	Turnettve Harker Was that they beard	The following morning he drove his only child and his two grandchildren out into		Legal tenders 115,439,700 114,621,200 *818,500 Deposits 586,633,500 588,541,400 2,807,900	leges that the false representations	the Holland Trust Company, and la
- 3	a leader, for I wa an alone.	the street, during a heavy storm. Neighbors took them in and sheltered	CHARLES MARTIN.	Circulation 10,803,800 11,142,000 338,200	were made by Negley for the purpose of securing the $3,000.	with the Atlantic Trust Company, the securities of the various wa
		them until she could provide them with	They may not know it yet, but the	Stocks were strong right up to the	Negley furnished $1,000 bail.	companies, town and railroad companish the Coffin & Stanton handled.
•		a home. It was said at the time that the old man then owned property worth	avenger is on their trail, and, if all	close. The net gains for the day were 1-4 to 11-2 per cent, and resulted mainly	CLUMP IN COTTON	The actual value of these securit
Jon, sol	Johnson avenue and Freda Emhoff, thirteen years of, of 48 Grahan ave-	$75,000. Mrs. Kate Kavanagh, his daughter.	reports be true, he means to make many of the dusky red men bite the	Gas led the upward movement. Chicago	SLUMP IN COTTON.	is a matter of interest just now. Prople who know are disposed to lat
St to	nue.	who now lives at 4 Jackson's court,	dust.	The dealings were characterized by a more confident tone than of late, that is	Wheat Opened a Little Higher with	at the statement issued by Recei Neuman Erb yesterday to the effect t
for die	burnet day. Intective Becker expects	said this morning that she had never exchanged a word with her father since	Charles Martin, is the avenger. For	so far as the professional element is	Corn and Oats Firm.	he knew nothing about the firm's affa to have half adozen other litte girls, who will testif against Geiser	he turned her out. Only once did she meet him, as he was coming out of a	the past fourteen years he has resided	concerned. The commission houses still achieve to their oft repeated statement	There was a sharp break in cotton	Erb has for a long time had his of with the firm of Coffin & Stanton, in remed		store. Then she looked him in the face.	quietly at 171 Ashford street, Brooklyn. During the greater part of that period	that outsiders are doing next to nothing in the market.	to-day. The Liverpool market broke	same room, and has generally been garded as the adviser of and an inter-
	RAN RIGHTINTO THE POLICE.	He returned the stare and passed on. Several months after she had been	he has made a study of the Indian ques-	The sales of listed stocks were 48,100	about 3 points, to the surprise of trad-	ed party in the transactions of the c co It and	Clever Sneek Thief Roone; s Dis-		tion, it is stated, and he finally decided	shares of Sugar and 200 Lead were	made at a lectine of from 10 to 15	cern. This, however, is denied by Erb.
ra blos	guited with Willia siurg.	burglars. They supposed that the old	that it was really wicked for the United	traded in.	on the call; December, 6.03 a 6.04; Jan-	Another matter which is being larg commented on by brokers this more ment, be		man had a large sum of money in the house, but they were deceived. While	States Government to expend so many million dollars of the aborigines every	The Cloring Quotations.	uary, 6.10 a 6.11; February, 6.19; March,	is the complete arrangement which en bes	New York, was held for that in the	they were searching his pockets the old fellow suddenly awoke and grabbed	year.	Open. High. Low Clos.	6.75; April, 6.31; May 6.36 a 6.37; June, 6.41 a 6.42; July, 6.46.	made for the receivership, when the I knew that legal proceedings were of a's per	Ewen Street Court, Williamsburg, to-	one of the intruders. Both men pounced	The climax was reached on Sept. 29	Am. Sugar Ref 86% 86% 85% 85%	The wheat market sold at the open- ing up 1-4c., to 571-2c. for December,	templated by more than one party recover securities which it was alle liseasu	day on a charge of grand laveny.	upon him with clubs and beat him on the head, cutting several deep gashes	last, when he learned, for the first time,	Am. Sugar Ref. pf	with Chicago up to 54c. Later there	the firm held without right.
rk City	George F Friedman, of 28 Marcy ave- rie, was sitting in his parlor, yester-	in his scalp and rendering him uncon- scious. The burglars got away, rBan-	that Uncle Sam had paid out $275,621,818 for the support in idleness of the Ind ans	Atch., Top. & Santa Pe 614 614 614	was a slight reaction. Corn was firm but quiet. Early May corn sold at	The alleged falling out between partners is looked upon by many a
I YOU	day afterson, while his coat and vest	nigan was laid up in the hospital for	since 1789.	Balt. & Ohio	543-4c, here, and at 51c, at the West, Oats were firm but quiet, with Decem-	for the receivership. The firm's hand at care	were haning over the back of a chair. He says that Rooney out the booked	As recently as Thursday night Bran-	That settled it.	Canadian Parific 66 66 66 66	ber 34 3-4c, at New York, and May 34c.,	of the Topeka Water Works Compar
w Acres		igan was seen going into his home, ap- parently in good health. He did not ap-	He decided to go West and extermin- ate every tribe either on or off the re-	Ches. & Ohio	at Chicago. Provisions were moderate- ly active and stronger on light live hog	bonds, of the Indianapolis City bor the bonds of the Water Works Comp od by a	window, leftly lifted on the coat and	pear on the street yesterday, and the	servations.	Chicago Gas	receipts.	of Ironwood, Mich, and the Graves bonds of John Y. McKane, is shar avenue. There was a good water and	neighbors began talking about his ab- sence. They thought he might be ill.		Chic. & Northwest 10314 1035 10315 10315	LEGAL PAPERS FOR GOULD.	commented on by the bankers and oth
-		Mathine was done however metil ?			LEGAL I AI ENS I ON GOOLD.
		Nothing was done, however, until 7 o'clock last night, when the matter was	ers, the publishers. This he sacrificed		A CONTRACT PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PART	who are more or less familiar with transactions.
	and stated after the thier, his cries	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col-	without informing his parents some	Chies, R. I. & Pac 60% 60% 60% 60%	Served with Them When He Left	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is
	and stated after the thier, his cries	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col-	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 29, though he	Chic., R. I. & Pac 60% 60% 60% 60% C., C. & St. Louis. 19% 39% 29% 39% Den. & Rio Grande pf 33% 33% 23% 23%		transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fall of the Indianapolis National Bank,
hy	and stated after the thirt, his bringing others to his assistance. Rooney was heading straight for the Stagg steet police skiton, and it was the stage steet police skiton, and it was	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col-	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night	Chic. R. I. & Pac 60% 50% 60% 60% 60% C. C. C. & St. Louis 29% 29% 29% 29% Den. & Rio Grande pf 33% 33% 23% 23% 23% Dis. & Cattle Peed 10 10% 10 10%	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fall of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institulis yet to be made.
hy	and stared after the thirty has beinging others to his assistance. Rooneywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner.	Chic. R. I. & Pac	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fall of the Indianapolis National Hank, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin
hy	and stated after the third, has bringing others to hir assistance. Reoneywas heading straight for the Stagg steet pol'ce sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney four that he had made the pearest police for the pearest police.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 60% 60% 60% 60% 60% C. C. & St. Louis 29% 39% 39% 29% 39% Den. & Rio Grande pf. 33% 33% 23% 33% Dis. & Cattle Feed. 10 10% 10 10% 10 10% Edison Electric III. 102 102% 102 102% E. Tenn. Va. & Ga. 11% 11% 11% General Electric. 38% 38% 38% 38% 38% 38% 38%	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institut is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Lean and Trust Compa
hy	and stared after the this, has created bringing others to his assistance. Rooneywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When booney four that he had made simust abee line for the nearest police and said he would	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 29 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best ciothes together	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 60% 60% 60% 60% 60% C. C. & St. Louis 29% 39% 39% 29% 39% Den. & Rio Grande pf. 33% 33% 23% 33% Dis. & Cattle Feed. 10 10% 10 10% 10 10% Edison Electric III. 102 102% 102 102% E. Tenn. Va. & Ga. 11% 11% 11% General Electric. 38% 38% 38% 38% 38% 38% 38%	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 4 Brondway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Earls, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Compawhich failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concept. To
hy	and stared after the thirty has beinging others to his assistance. Rooneywas heading straight for the Stage steet police satton, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney four that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, we swore and said he would never come to Willimsburg again.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examina- tion, said Brannigan would probably die yery shortly. He was removed to	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 3, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 29 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Plerce, said that the	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Earls, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Compawhich failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to 28,000
hy	and stared after the thirty has beinging others to his assistance. Rooneywas heading straight for the Stage steet police satton, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney four that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, we swore and said he would never come to Willimsburg again.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted.	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 29 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Brondway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said that the papers related to a claim against Mr.	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fail of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institutes yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffir Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loans and Trust Compawhich failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $8,000 demand loans, secured by collateral demand loans, secured by collateral
hy	and stated after the this. has beinging others to hir assistance. Reoneywis heading straight for the Stagg steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney four that he had made almost abee line for the hearest police station, its swore and said he would station, its swore and said he would station.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt. Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt. Colyan, recalling the burglary.	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 35, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best ciothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 604, 604, 604, 608, C. C. & St. Louis. 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Brondway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Plerce, said that the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fail of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institutes yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Compa which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $15,000 demand loans, secured by collateral esting of water, county and rails bonds of town all over the country.
hy	and stared after the this. In a bringing others to hir assistance. Reoneywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest hi. When looney fours that he had made atmost abee line for the nearest police station, he swore and said he would never cone to Willimsburg again. The plice ain rmuch good, he remarked. "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinched."	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examina- tion, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. S, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 29 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day.	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Brondway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Plerce, said that the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis.	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institut is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Lean and Trust Compawhich failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took hold of that concern. Indebtedness to the American Lean Trust Company amounted to $8.00 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, county and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintions with J Y. Melsane will, it is said, be an in
hy	and stated after the this. has bringing others to hir assistance. Reoneywas heading straight for the Stagg steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest hir. When looney fours that he had made simost abee line for the hearest police station, is swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. The pilice ain trunch good, he remarked. "but wen a bloke steers straight is the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt. Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have heen visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disparent.	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. S, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 29 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with reter.	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Plerce, said that the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Earls, that an accounting with that matitude is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Compawhich failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. It indebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $86,000 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, county and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintons with J Y. McKane will, it is said, be an inesting matter for investigation. The rm was loaded up with Gr.
hy	and stated after the this. has bringing others to hir assistance. Reoneywas heading straight for the Stagg steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest hir. When looney fours that he had made simost abee line for the hearest police station, is swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. The pilice ain trunch good, he remarked. "but wen a bloke steers straight is the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examina- tion, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will dis- close. The idectors think that he had an	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best ciothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather	Chic., R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Brondway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, sail that the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Earls, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Compawhich failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $86,090 demand loans, secured by collateral esting of water, country and rails bonds of town all over the country. Cilin & Stanton's relations with J Y. McKane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rm was loaded up with Gr. esd 5 per cent, Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers bonds, which they offered to bankers.
hy	and stared after the this. In a bringing others to hir assistance. Reconcywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Rigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made atmost abee line fy the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never coae to Willimsburg again. "The place ain trunch good, he remarked, "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Peaceti Ending.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examina- tion, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have heen visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best ciothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hely minus two front upper teeth, wore	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 604, 604, 604, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 4 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said tent the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institut is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Compa which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took hold of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $85,990 demand loans, secured by collateral esting of water, county and rails bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintions with J Y. McKane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rim was loaded up with Gress of per cent, Local Improvembonds, which they offered to bankers ser the country from Male to Geor
hy	and stared after the this. In a bringing others to hir assistance. Reoneywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line fy the nearest police station, is swore and said he would bever code to Willimsburg again. "The place ain trunch good," he remarked, a but wen a bloke steers straight fir the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencesi Ending. Thomas durphy of 208 Furman street,	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examina- tion, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have heen visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the helief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives.	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat.	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis 293, 294, 294, 294, 294, 294, 294, 294, 294	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Brondway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, sail that the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institut is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Compawhich failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took hold of that concern. Indebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $8,080 demand loans, secured by collateral esting of water, county and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintions with J Y. McKane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rm was loaded up with Gress of por cent, Local Improvembonds, which they offered to bankers ser the country from Male to Geor through the medium of a drain which they kept on the road. It is a
hy	and stared after the this. In a bringing others to hir assistance. Reoneywas heading straight for the Stagg steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, he swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. The plice ain much good, he remarked. "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencefi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Proving and to men, whose names	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the helief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth, wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was cont-	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis 293, 294, 294, 294, 294, 294, 294, 294, 294	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Brondway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, sail that the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter.	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institut is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Compa which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took hold of that concern. Indebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $8,089 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, county and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintions with J Y. Mekane will, it is said, be an inesting matter for investigation. The rim was loaded up with Grest of the country from Male to Goor through the medium of a drain which they kept on the road, It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bonds to Affin & Stanton, but that
hy	and stated after the this. In a bringing others to hir assistance. Reconcywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made atmost abee line fy the nearest police station, is swore and said he would bever coae to Willimsburg again. "The pilice ain trunch good." he remarked, "but wen a bloke steers straight fir the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencesi Ending. Thomas durphy of 208 Furman street, Erecklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to is police, entered Louis Delevanter's smon, 262 Furman street.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examina- tion, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have heen visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the helief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives.	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth, wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually nouring over railroad time-	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Brondway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, sail that the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter.	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fail of the Indianapolis National Hank, that an accounting with that institutely that command the interest of the stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Compawhich failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $5,596 demand loans, secured by collateral esting of water, county and rails bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintions with J. Y. McKane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rm was loaded up with Gr. esd 5 per cent, Local Improvembonly, which they offered to bankers our the country from Male to Geor through the medium of a drum which they kept on the read, It is a that no cash was ever paid for the bands by Affin & Stanton, but that.
hy	and stared after the this. In a bringing others to his assistance. Reoneywas heading straight for the Stags steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. "The place ain thuch good," he remarked. "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Peacegl Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to be police, entered Louis Delevanthe's salon, 262 Furman street, everyle after minight, and one of the	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examina- tion, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home.	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth. wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 304, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 2	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Brondway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, sail that the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter.	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fail of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institutes yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Compa which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $15,500 demand loans, secured by collateral esting of water, county and rails bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintions with J. Y. McKane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rm was loaded up with Greed by perfect the country from Male to Geor through the medium of a dram which they kept on the road. It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could.
hy	sad stated after the thist. and stated after the thist. Reoneywas heading straight for the stagg steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, it swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. "The plice ain trunch good," he remarked. "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencefi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Freeklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to be police, entered Louis Delevanther's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly after minight, and one of the party ordered rinks for the party	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have heen visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth, wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 604, 604, 604, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 4 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said tent the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Juy Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Clonkmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work.	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institut is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Compawhich failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took hold of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $85,000 demand loans, secured by collateral esting of water, county and rails bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintions with J Y. McKane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rm was loaded up with Gress of per cent, Local Improvembonds, which they offered to bankers ser the country from Male to Geor through the medium of a dram which they kept on the road. It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the leing lanks here, from country institutes as to the value of these Grantons and the stone as to the value of these Grantons.
ms	sad stated after the thist. and stated after the thist. Reoneywas heading straight for the stagg steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, it swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. "The plice ain trunch good," he remarked. "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencefi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Freeklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to be police, entered Louis Delevanther's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly after minight, and one of the party ordered rinks for the party	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have heen visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home.	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth, wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 304, 204, 204, Den. & Rio Grande pf. 335, 335, 232, 325, Dia & Cattle Peed. 10 108, 10 103, Edison Electric III. 102 1024, 102 1025, E. Tenn. Va. & Ga. 114, 114, 114, 114, 114, 118, General Electric. 384, 384, 384, 384, 184, 184, 184, 184, 184, 184, 184, 1	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Plerce, said tent the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Cloakmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will proba-	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fail of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Company which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $85,000 demand loans, secured by collateral elsting of water, country and rail bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintions with J Y McKane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rm was loaded up with Greed of per cent. Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers set the country from Male to Georphous the medium of a drain which they kept on the read. It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bands by Affin & Stanton, but that. Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the leing lanks here, from country institutions as to the value of these Grand and to the long lanks here, from country institutions as to the value of these Grand.
ms	sad stared after the this. In string princing others to his assistance. Reconcywas heading straight for the Stags steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney fours that he had made almost abee line fy the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. "The pilice ain trauch good," he remarked, a" but wen a bloke steers straight it the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Peacegl Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Procklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to ite police, entered Louis Delevanthe's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refuset to bay for them, and the startender, Louis Blonderman, ordered them out of the store.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt. Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examina- tion, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt. Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the helief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant.	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth, wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie betrowed 14 from an aunt a	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 305, 205, 205, Den. & Rio Grande pf. 335, 331, 232, 325, Dia. & Cattle Feed. 10 108, 10 103, 10 104, Edisson Electric III. 102 1024, 102 1025, E. Tenn. Va. & Ga. 114, 114, 114, 114, 118, 118, 118, 118,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said tout the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Clonkmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fail of the Indianapolis National Earls, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Company which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $86,000 demand loans, secured by collateral estimated of the control of the cont
ms	since stated after the this. In string principles of his assistance. Reconcywas beading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing if the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, he swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. The plice ain trunch good, he remarked. "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cody, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencefi Ending. Thomas durphy of 208 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to be police, entered Louis Delevanther's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly after minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refuset to bay for them, and the bartender, Lous Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their tefsalto leave precipitated.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirly, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Corneliu: Furgeson, known as the Czar	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth. Wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed M from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 304, 204, 204, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 3	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 4 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said test the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Clonkmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent, in their	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institut is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Lean and Trust Compa which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took hold of that concern. It indebtedness to the American Lean Trust Company amounted to $85,08 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, county and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintions with J Y. Mekane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rim was loaded up with Grest of per cent. Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers see the country from Male to Goor through the medium of a drain which they kept on the road. It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the ling lanks here, from country institutes a to the value of these Gratend bonds. In many instances there were successful in placing substan loans with country trains hake in the country banks, paying trate of interest 2 or 3 per cent. his
ms	and stared after the this. In a bringing others to his assistance. Reconcywas heading straight for the Stags steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. "The plice ain thunch good," he remarked, it but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencesi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to be police, entered Louis Delevanthe's salon, 282 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refuset to bay for them, and the lattender, Lous Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their refusation leave precipitated a free light, Surphy hit the bartender with a buile Blonderman threw a chair at one of the other men, who	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirly, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Cornelius Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth. wore a soft fell hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed 14 from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money.	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 604, 604, 604, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608, 608	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said tent the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Cloakmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent, in their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have failed to pay, and also to ston certain of the basses from making	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fail of the Indianapolis National Bank, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Company which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $86,000 demand loans, secured by collateral esting of water, country and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintions with J Y McKane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rm was loaded up with Greed's per cent, Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers set the country from Male to Geory through the medium of a draim which they kept on the read, It is that no cash was ever paid for it bands by Afin & Stanton, but that. Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the leing lanks here, from country institutions as to the value of these Gray and the product of the leing lanks here, from country institutions as to the value of these Gray end bonds. In many instances it were successful in placing substantons with country for morey was that they we way they will be the good paper was bringing in York. Their excuse for going late country for money was that they we
ms	and stared after the this. In a bringing others to his assistance. Reconcywas heading straight for the Stags steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. "The plice ain thunch good," he remarked, it but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencesi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to be police, entered Louis Delevanthe's salon, 282 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refuset to bay for them, and the lattender, Lous Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their refusation leave precipitated a free light, Surphy hit the bartender with a buile Blonderman threw a chair at one of the other men, who	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirly, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Cornelius Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth. wore a soft fell hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed 14 from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money.	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 305, 205, 205, Den. & Rio Grande pf. 335, 331, 232, 323, Dia. & Cattle Feed. 10 108, 10 103, Edisson Electric III. 102 1024, 102 1025, E. Tenn. Va. & Ga. 114, 114, 114, 114, 118, General Electric. 384, 384, 384, 384, 186, E. & Western. 174, 174, 174, 174, 174, 174, 174, 174,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Plerce, said that the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Cloakmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent, in their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have failed to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four firms whose shops ware	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Hank, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Lean and Trust Compawhich failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took hold of that concern. It indebtedness to the American Lean Trust Company amounted to $8.000 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, county and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintons with J Y. Mckane will, it is said, be an inesting matter for investigation. The rim was loaded up with Gr. esd 5 per cent, Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers our through the medium of a drain which they kept on the read. It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the ling banks here, from country institutions as to the value of these Gravend tonks. In many instances there were successful in placing substanloans with country banks, paying rate of interest 2 of 3 per cent, highly hand good paper was bringing in York. Their excuse for going luto cauntry for money was that they we led to vive the small bankers a charter of the self of the self of the self of the said bankers a charter of the said bankers a cha
ms	and stared after the this. In a bringing others to his assistance. Reconcywas heading straight for the Stags steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. "The plice ain thunch good," he remarked, it but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencesi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to be police, entered Louis Delevanthe's salon, 282 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refuset to bay for them, and the lattender, Lous Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their refusation leave precipitated a free light, Surphy hit the bartender with a buile Blonderman threw a chair at one of the other men, who	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirly, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Cornelius Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth. wore a soft fell hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed 14 from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money.	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 604, 604, 604, 608, C. C. & St. Louis. 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his altorney, Winslow S. Pierce, sail tout the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10.000 TO STRIKE. Cloakmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent, in their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have failed to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four firms whose shops ware struck four weeks ago.	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Earls, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Lean and Trust Compa which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. The indebtedness to the American Lean Trust Company amounted to $86,000 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, county and rails bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintons with J Y. McKane will, it is said, be an inesting matter for investigation. The rim was loaded up with Greed 5 per cent, Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers our through the medium of a drum which they kept on the road. It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the bing lanks here, from country institutes at the country that with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the bing lanks here, from country institutes at the town of these Gray end tonds. In many instances there is no the country that they were successful in placing substant loans with county banks, paying rate of interest 2 or 3 ter cent, higher in the country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a challeng country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a challenger country country on the mall bankers a challenger country of the small bankers a challenger country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a challenger country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a challenger country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a challenger can be successed interest. The country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a challenger can be severed to the succession of the them when the success the small bankers a challenger can be severed to the succe
ms	and stared after the think, has bringing others to his assistance. Reconeywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made atmost abee line fy the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never coae to Willimsburg again. "The plice ain trunch good, he remarked, "but wen a bloke steers straight fir the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLIS ANI CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencefi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Procklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to is police, entered Louis Delevanthe's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refuset to any for them, and the lartender, Louis Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their refused to leave precipitated a free light, yarphy hit the bartender with a bottle Blonderman threw a chair at one if the other men, who daged andth missile struck Murphy on the head, qiping open his scalp. Somebody stande on the sidewalk cried "Police" at the saloon and escaped.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station, of the lower Fulton street station, and the lower fulton street station, and the lower fulton street station, and the doctor, the was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt. Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have heen visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Cornelius Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Smith, to-day. It was in the suit brought by Walter Parfit, a taxpayer, for the annulment of a contract between the	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth, wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over rallroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie berrowed 14 from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money. You read the Evening World! Do you read the Evening World!	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 305, 205, 205, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 305, 205, 205, Den. & Rio Grande pf. 335, 335, 232, 325, Dia & Cattle Peed. 10 108, 10 103, Edisson Electric III. 102 1024, 102 1025, E. Tenn. Va. & Ga. 114, 114, 114, 114, 114, 118, 118, 118,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said tent the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Cloakmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent, in their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have falled to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four firms whose shops were this div and vicitity has been called the sity and vicitity has been called.	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fail of the Indianapolis National Earl, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Company which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Thindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $86,090 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, country and rails bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's relations with J Y. McKane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rm was loaded up with Gr. esd 5 per cent, Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers set the country from Male to Geor through the medium of a drain which they kept on the road. It is that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the ling banks here, from country institutes as to the value of these Grar end bonds. In many instances twee successful in plucing substantians with county banks, paying rate of interest 2 or 3 per cent, higher and bonds. In many instances to were successful in plucing substant loans with country banks, paying rate of interest 2 or 3 per cent, higher and bonds. In many instances to were successful in plucing substant loans with country banks, paying rate of interest 2 or 3 per cent, higher and bonds. In many instances to were successful in plucing substant loans with country banks, paying rate of interest 2 or 3 per cent, higher a country for money was that they would to give the small bankers a chat to make good interest. The course people "caught on," but when loans matured, it was simply a case renewal or take the securities, with the country for money was that they were successful on the sum of the
ms	sad stared after the thirt. In string in the princing pithers to his assistance. Reconcywas heading straight for the Stage steet police skiton, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made atmost abee line fy the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never coae to Willimsburg again. "The plice ain thunch good, he remarked, "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinchd." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencefi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to its police, entered Louis Delevanthe's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refuset to any for them, and the hartender, Louis Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their tefasal to leave precipitated a free light, yarphy hit the bartender with a bottle Blonderman threw a chair at one of the other men, who dogsel and homissile struck Murphy on the head, quing open his scalp. Somebody stands on the slewalk cried "Police!" Id Murphy's companions cashed out the saloon and escaped. Policemantellihan found the store in Police manual processor.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt. Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have heen visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Cornelius Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Smith, to-day. It was in the suit brought by Walter Parfit, a taxpayer, for the annulment of a contract between the town and the Kings County Gas Com-	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth, wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over rallroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie berrowed 14 from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money. You read the Evening World! Do you read the Evening World!	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 604, 604, 604, 604, C. C. & St. Louis. 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Plerce, said that the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Clonkmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent, in their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have failed to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four firms whose shops ware struck four weeks ago. A mass-meeting of all the cloakmakers of this city and Vicinity, has been called for to-night in Copper Union Hail. The question of a general strike will be put	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the fail of the Indianapolis National Earls, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Company which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. The indebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $86,090 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, country and rails bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's relations with J. Y. McKane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rim was loaded up with Gr. esd. 5 per cent. Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers set the country from Male to Geory through the medium of a drain which they kept on the road. It is that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the ling banks here, from country institutes as to the value of these Granel of the order. In many instances the were successful in plucing substantions as to the value of these Granel of the firm dispose of as hey could. Improve the successful in plucing substantions as to the value of these Granel of the firm dispose of as hey could. Improve the country for money was that they would to give the small banks, maying rate of interest 2 or 3 per cent, his than good paper was bringing in the caunity for money was that they would to give the small bankers a class to make good interest. The cour people "caught on," but when leas matured, it was simply a case renewal or take the securities, than the amount of the lan.
ms	sad stared after the this. In string bringing others to his assistance. Reconcywas heading straight for the Stags steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney fours that he had made almost abee line fy the nearest police station, is swore and said he would be received to Willimsburg again. "The pilice ain trunch good." he remarked, a but wen a bloke steers straight fir the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANF CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencesi Ending. Thomas durphy of 208 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to see police, entered Louis Delevanthe's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly after minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refuset to bay for them, and the tartender, Louis Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their tests to leave precipitated a free light. Surphy hit the bartender with a buttle Blonderman threw a chair at one if the other men, who dodged anoth himissile struck murphy on the head, quing open his scalp. Somebody stands on the sidewalk cried Police." Yet Murphy's companions dashed out the saloon and escaped. Policemarkellihan found the store in a wreck. In ambulance surgeon was	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt. Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirly, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examina- tion, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the helief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Corneliu: Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Smith, to-day, It was in the suit brought by Walter Parfitt, a taxpayer, for the annulment of a contract between the town and the Kings County Gas Company.	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth, wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed 14 from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money. You read the Evening World! Do you read the Sunday World! STRIKERS MAKE THREATS.	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 604, 604, 604, 605, C. C. & St. Louis. 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 4 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said test the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Clonkmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent. In their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have failed to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four tirms whose shops ware struck four weeks ago. A mass-meeting of all the cloakmakers of this city and vicinity, has been called for to-night in Cooper Union Hail. The question of a general strike will be put to yote.	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Hank, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Lean and Trust Compa which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took hold of that concern. It indebtedness to the American Lean Trust Company amounted to $8.000 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, county and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintons with J Y. Mekane will, it is said, be an inesting matter for investigation. The rim was loaded up with Grest 5 per cent. Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers our through the medium of a drain which they kept on the read. It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the ling banks here, from country hist tions as to the value of these Gravend bonds. In many instances there were successful in plucing substant loans with country banks, paying rate of interest 2 of 3 per cent, his thin good paper was bringing in York. Their excuse for going linto cauntry for money was that they we do it give the small bankers a challo make good interest. The cour people "caucht on," but when loans matured, it was simply a case renewal or take the securities. We usually averaged on realization, miess than the amount of the luan.
ms	sad stared after the this. In string bringing others to his assistance. Reconeywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never coae to Willimsburg again. "The pilice ain trunch good. he remarked, "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinchd." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. Bata Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Peacest Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to ite police, entered Louis Delevanther's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refused to hay for them, and the bartender, Lous Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their teffsalto leave precipitated a free light. Narphy hit the bartender with a bottle Blonderman threw a chair at oie if the other men, who dogsel and homissile struck Murphy on the head, quing open his scalp. Somebody stands on the sldewalk cried "Police!" 'Id Murphy's companions dashed out the saloon and escaped. Policemarkellihan found the store in a wreck. In ambulance surgeon was called to pich Mr. Murphy's head, and	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Corneliu: Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Smith, to-day, It was in the suit brought by Walter Parfitt, a taxpayer, for the annulment of a contract between the town and the Kings County Gas Company. The company was made defendants	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth. wore a soft fell hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed 14 from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money. You read the Evening World! Do you read the Evening World! STRIKERS MAKE THREATS.	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 304, 204, 204, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 3	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 4 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said test the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the later. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Clonkmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent, in their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have failed to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four drins whose shops ware struck four weeks ago. A mass-meeting of all the cloakmakers of this city and vicinity, has been called for to-night in Cooper Union Hall. The question of a general strike will be not to yote. The Cloakmakers and Operators' Union comprises a membership of 10,000 men and wwinen, who have already favored a	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Earls, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Lean and Trust Company which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Lean Trust Company amounted to $8.000 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, county and railed bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintons with J Y. Mckane will, it is said, be an inesting matter for investigation. The rim was loaded up with Greed 5 per cent, Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers ser the country from Male to Geory through the medium of a drum which they kept on the road. It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the bing lanks here, from country institutes as to the value of these Gravend tonds. In many instances twere some severes and to his and they were successful in pincing substant loans with country banks, paying rate of interest 2 of 3 ter cent, his than good paper was bringing in York. Their excuse for going linto cauntry for money was that they we cal to give the small bankers a class to make good interest. The cour people "caught on," but when loans matured, it was simply a case renewal or take the securities, when less than the amount of the luan. Here is a samule of one of Coffic Stanton's offerings: City of deferementings:
ms	and stared after the thirt, and the bringing others to his assistance. Reconeywas heading straight for the Stags steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never code to Willimsburg again. "The plice ain thunch good," he remarked, if the cop, why he's sure to be pinched." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencesi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to be police, entered Louis Delevanthe's salon, 282 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refuset to bay for them, and the lattender, Lous Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their refusation leave precipitated a free light. Varphy hit the bartender with a butile Blonderman threw a chair at one of the other men, who dodged and them store. Their refusation is started. Murphy on the head, using open his scaip. Somebody stands on the sidewalk cried "Police" and Murphy's companions dashed out the saloon and escaped. Policemarkellihan found the store in a wreck. In ambulance surgeon was called to peh Mr. Murphy's head, and the bartender were taken to be startenden bothes and the bartender were taken to be startenden beaut the server taken to be startenden beaut the server.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Col- gan, of the lower Fulton street sta- tion. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirty, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Corneliu: Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Smith, to-day, It was in the suit brought by Walter Parfitt, a taxpayer, for the annulment of a contract between the town and the Kings County Gas Company. The company was made defendants together with Furgueson and the other	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth. Wore a soft fell hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed M from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money. You read the Evening World! Do you read the Evening World! STRIKERS MAKE THREATS. Extra Police Guard Ordered for a Brooklyn Shoe Factory.	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 604, 604, 604, 605, C. C. & St. Louis. 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204,	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said tent the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jny Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Cloakmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent, in their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have falled to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four firms whose shops were struck four weeks ago. A mass-meeting of all the cloakmakers of this city and vicinity, has been called for to-night in Cooper Union Hail. The question of a general strike will be put to vote. The Cloakmakers and Operators' Union comprises a membership of 19,000 men and witnen, who have aircudy favored a general strike. Two thousand who were	transactions. It is also reported that the firm a soine way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Earls, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Lean and Trust Company which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Lean Trust Company amounted to $8.000 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, county and rails bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintons with J Y. Mckane will, it is said, be an in esting matter for investigation. The rim was loaded up with Gr. esd 5 per cent, Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers our through the medium of a drum which they kept on the road. It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the bing lanks here, from country institutes to the country for money was that they we did to give the small bankers a charten to make good interest. The cour people "caught on," but when loans matured, it was simply a case renewal or take the securities, without or take the securities, without or take the securities, with summing of the land. Here is a sample of one of Coffin Stanton's offerings: City of Gloverstille, N. Y. water works.
ms	sad stared after the this. In string bringing others to his assistance. Reconeywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made almost abee line for the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never coae to Willimsburg again. "The pilice ain trunch good. he remarked, "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinchd." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. Bata Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Peacest Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to ite police, entered Louis Delevanther's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refused to hay for them, and the bartender, Lous Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their teffsalto leave precipitated a free light. Narphy hit the bartender with a bottle Blonderman threw a chair at oie if the other men, who dogsel and homissile struck Murphy on the head, quing open his scalp. Somebody stands on the sldewalk cried "Police!" 'Id Murphy's companions dashed out the saloon and escaped. Policemarkellihan found the store in a wreck. In ambulance surgeon was called to pich Mr. Murphy's head, and	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirly, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Corneliu: Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Smith, to-day. It was in the suit brought by Walter Parfitt, a taxpayer, for the annulment of a contract between the town and the Kings County Gas Company. The company was made defendants together with Furgueson and the other members of the Town Improvement Board.	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth. wore a soft fell hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed 14 from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money. You read the Evening World! STRIKERS MAKE THREATS. Extra Police Guard Ordered for a Brooklyn Shoe Factory. The police are on guard to-day at	Chic. R. I. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 304, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 2	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 4 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said tent the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jny Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Cloakmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent, in their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have falled to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four firms whose shops ware struck four weeks ago. A mass-meeting of all the cloakmakers of this city and yielnity, has been called for to-night in Cooper Union Hall. The question of a general strike will be put to yote. The Cloakmakers and Operators' Union comprises a membership of 10,000 men and witnen, who have aircaidy favored a general strike. Two thousand who wete employed by Julius Stein & Co. A. Beller & Co. Louis Grauer & Co. and Max Hel-	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Hank, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Lean and Trust Compa which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took hold of that concern. It indebtedness to the American Lean Trust Company amounted to $8.000 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, county and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintons with J Y. Mekane will, it is said, be an inesting matter for investigation. The rim was loaded up with Grest 5 per cent. Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers our through the medium of a drain which they kept on the read. It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the ling banks here, from country institutions as to the value of these Gravend bonds. In many instances to were sourcessful in placing substant loans with country banks, paying rate of interest 2 of 3 per cent. his thin good paper was bringing in York. Their excuse for going luto country for money was that they we did to give the small bankers a challon make good interest. The cour people "caucht on," but when loans matured, it was simply a case renewal or take the securities. When loans matured, it was simply a case renewal or take the securities. City of theresawille, loa, funding 5 a per cents. City of theresawille, loa, funding 5 a per cents. City of theresawille, loa, funding 5 a per cents. City of theresawille, loa, funding 5 per cents. City of theresawille, loa, funding 5 per cents.
hy ms	sad stared after the this. In string princing pithers to his assistance. Reconeywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made atmost abee line for the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never coae to Willimsburg again. "The pilice ain trunch good. he remarked, "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinchd." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. Bata Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencesi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to ite police, entered Louis Delevanther's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refused to hay for them, and the bartender, Lous Blonderman, ordered them out of thestore. Their teffsalto leave precipitated a free light. Narphy hit the bartender with a bottle Blonderman threw a chair at oie if the other men, who dogsel and homissile struck Murphy on the head, quing open his scalp. Somebody stands on the sidewalk cried "Police!" A Murphy's companions dashed out the saloon and escaped. Policemarkellihan found the store in a wreck. In ambulance surgeon was called to pich Mr. Murphy's head, and then bothie and the bartender were taken to ie station-house. As they lined up fore the sergeant they contained and made charges against each other and sey were not locked up.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirly, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the helief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Cornelius Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Smith, to-day. It was in the suit brought by Walter Parfitt, a taxpayer, for the annulment of a contract between the town and the Kings County Gas Company. The company was made defendants together with Furgueson and the other members of the Town Improvement Board. The allegation had been made of the existence of collusion, as all the fields	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth. wore a soft fell hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an slarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed M from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money. You read the Evening World! STRIKERS MAKE THREATS. Extra Police Guard Ordered for a Brooklyn Shoe Factory. The police are on guard to-day at Lane's shoe factory, Fifth avenue and Sterling, place, Brooklyn, where the	Chic. R. J. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis 201, 301, 301, 201, 201, 201, 201, 201, 201, 201, 2	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said tent the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10.000 TO STRIKE. Clonkmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent. In their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have falled to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four firms whose shops ware struck four weeks ago. A mass-meeting of all the cloakmakers of this city and ylcinity, has been called for to-night in Cooper Union Hail. The question of a general strike will be put to yote. The Cloakmakers and Operators' Union comprises a membership of 10,000 men and women, who have already favored a general strike. Two thousand who were employed by Julius Stein & Co., A. Beller & Sons, have been on strike for a month in support of the culters, and for	transactions. It is also reported that the firm is some way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Hank, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Lean and Trust Compa which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took hold of that concern. It indebtedness to the American Lean Trust Company amounted to $8.00 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, county and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintons with J Y. Mekane will, it is said, be an inesting matter for investigation. The rim was loaded up with Grest 5 per cent. Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers our through the medium of a drain which they kept on the read. It is a that no cash was ever paid for it bonds by Affin & Stanton, but that Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the ling banks here, from country has tonis as to the value of these Gravend bonds. In many instances to were sourcessful in plucing substant loans with country banks, paying rate of interest 2 of 3 per cent, his thin good paper was bringing in York. Their excuse for going linto cauntry for money was that they well to give the small bankers a challon make good interest. The courpople "caucht on," but when loans matured, it was simply a case renewal or take the securities. When loans matured, it was simply a case renewal or take the securities. City of Gloverschile. No. 1 water works feel. City of Gloverschile. No. 2 water works feel. City of Gloverschile. No. 3 water works feel. City of Gloverschile. No. 4 water colors a feel. City of Gloverschile. No. 2 water works feel. City of Gloverschile. No. 3 water works feel.
hy ms	sing inspirers to his assistance. Reconcywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Rigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made atmost abee line fy the nearest police station, it swore and said he would never coae to Willimsburg again. "The plice ain trauch good, he remarked, "but wen a bloke steers straight fir the cop, why he's sure to be pinchd." BOTTLES ANF CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencesi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Procklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to is police, entered Louis Delevanthe's sabon, 262 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refuset to any for them, and the lattender, Louis Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their refusely leave precipitated a free light. Nurphy hit the bartender with a battle Blonderman threw a chair at one of the store in the stands on the store in a wreck. In ambulance surgeon was called to pich Mr. Murphy's companions Gashei out the saloon and escaped. Policemarkellihan found the store in a wreck. In ambulance surgeon was called to pich Mr. Murphy's lead, and then both is and the bartender were lake to be station-house. As they lined up fore the sergeant they contaid and man make charges against each	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirly, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Cornelius Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Smith, to-day. It was in the suit brought by Walter Parfitt, a taxpayer, for the annulment of a contract between the town and the Kings County Gas Company. The company was made defendants together with Furgueson and the other members of the Town Improvement Board. The district are brightly illuminated, for which the taxpayers had to bear. It	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth. Wore a soft fell hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed M from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money. You read the Evening World! STRIKERS MAKE THREATS. Extra Police Guard Ordered for a Brooklyn Shoe Factory. The police are on guard to-day at Lane's shoe factory, Fifth avenue and Sterling, place, Brooklyn, where the hands went on strike yesterday. This	Chic. R. J. & Pac. 604, 604, 604, 604, C. C. & St. Louis. 204, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 3	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said tent the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Clonkmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent. In their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have falled to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four firms whose shops ware struck four weeks ago. A mass-meeting of all the cloakmakers of this city and ylcinity, has been called for to-night in Copper Union Hail. The question of a general strike will be put to yote. The Cloakmakers and Operators' Union comprises a membership of 10,000 men and women, who have already favored a general strike. Two thousand who were employed by Julius Stein & Co., A. Beller & Co., Louis Grauer & Co. and Max Heller & Sons, have been on strike for a month in support of the new scale of wages.	transactions. It is also reported that the firm a soine way mixed up with the ful of the Indianapolis National Hank, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Lean and Trust Company which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. It indebtedness to the American Lean Institute of Indebtedness to the American Lean Institute of Insti
hy ms	sad stared after the this. In string princing pithers to his assistance. Reconeywas heading straight for the Stage steet police sation, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made atmost abee line for the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never coae to Willimsburg again. "The pilice ain trunch good. he remarked, "but wen a bloke steers straight for the cop, why he's sure to be pinchd." BOTTLES ANE CHAIRS USED. Bata Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencesi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Erocklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to ite police, entered Louis Delevanther's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refused to hay for them, and the bartender, Lous Blonderman, ordered them out of thestore. Their teffsalto leave precipitated a free light. Narphy hit the bartender with a bottle Blonderman threw a chair at oie if the other men, who dogsel and homissile struck Murphy on the head, quing open his scalp. Somebody stands on the sidewalk cried "Police!" A Murphy's companions dashed out the saloon and escaped. Policemarkellihan found the store in a wreck. In ambulance surgeon was called to pich Mr. Murphy's head, and then bothie and the bartender were taken to ie station-house. As they lined up fore the sergeant they contained and made charges against each other and sey were not locked up.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirly, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Cornelius Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Smith, to-day. It was in the suit brought by Walter Parfitt, a taxpayer, for the annulment of a contract between the town and the Kings County Gas Company. The company was made defendants together with Furgueson and the other members of the Town Improvement Board. The district are brightly illuminated, for which the taxpayers had to bear. It was shown that there was a gas-lamp for meanly every inhabitant of the town for the town of the town in the town in the town the thetax as a gas-lamp for meanly every inhabitant of the town in the company was made defendants together with Furgueson and the other members of the Town Improvement together with Furgueson and the other members of the taxpayers had to bear. It was shown that there was a gas-lamp for nearly every inhabitant of the town	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth, wore a soft felt hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed 14 from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money. You read the Evening World: STRIKERS MAKE THREATS. Extra Police Guard Ordered for a Brooklyn shoe Factory. The police are on guard to-day at Lane's shoe factory. Fifth avenue and Sterling place, Brooklyn, where the hands went on strike yesterday. This is the second strike there within six weeks. The men who went out yester-	Chic. R. J. & Pac. 603, 603, 603, 603, 603, C. C. C. & St. Louis. 203, 304, 304, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 204, 2	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 44 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said tent the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the latter. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Cloakmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent. In their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have failed to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four firms whose shops ware struck four weeks ago. A mass-meeting of all the cloakmakers of this city and vicinity, has been called for to-night in Cooper Union Hail. The question of a general strike will be put to yote. The Cloakmakers and Operators' Union comprises a membership of 10,000 men and witnen, who have aircaidy favored a general strike. Two thousand who wete employed by Julius Stein & Co., A. Beller & Co., Louis Grauer & Co. and Max Heller & Soms, have been on strike for a month in support of the cutters, and for the enforcement	transactions. It is also reported that the firm a soine way mixed up with the fail of the Indianapolis National Earls, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Company which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $86,000 demand loans, secured by collateral esting of water, country and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's reintions with J Y McKane will, it is said, be an inesting matter for investigation. The rm was loaded up with Greed 5 per cent, Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers set the country from Male to Geory through the medium of a draim which they kept on the road. It is that no cash was ever paid for it hand capsited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the leing lanks here, from country institutions as to the value of these Gravend tonds. In many instances twee successful in placing substantions as to the value of these Gravend tonds. In many instances to were successful in placing substantions as to the value of these Gravend tonds. In many instances to were successful in placing substantions as to the value of these Gravend tonds. In many instances to were successful in placing substantions with country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a classification, in the stanton's offerings: City of Sunce, Ind. refuding 5 per cent. The country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a class of the leading 5 per cent. The country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a class of the beautiful of the leading 5 per cent. The country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a class of the beautiful of the leading 5 per cent. The country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a class of the leading 5 per cent. The country for money was that they well
ms	sing ingothers to his assistance. Reconcywas heading straight for the Stage steet police skiton, and it was an easy matter for Policeman Kigler, who was standing it the doorway, to arrest his. When looney found that he had made atmost abee line fy the nearest police station, is swore and said he would never coae to Willimsburg again. "The plice ain trauch good, he remarked, "but wen a bloke steers straight fir the cop, why he's sure to be pinchd." BOTTLIS ANI CHAIRS USED. But a Free Fight in a Saloon Had a Pencefi Ending. Thomas durphy of 308 Furman street, Erecklyn, and to men, whose names are unknown to is police, entered Louis Delevanthe's salon, 262 Furman street, shortly afar minight, and one of the men ordered rinks for the party He refuset to bay for them, and the lartender, Louis Blonderman, ordered them out of the store. Their tefasalto leave precipitated a free light, Narphy hit the bartender with a bottle Blonderman threw a chair at one of the store men, who dogsel and homiselle struck Murphy on the head, uping open his scalp. Somebody stands on the sidewalk cried "Police" of Murphy's companions Cashel out the saloon and escaped. Policemarkellihan found the store in a wreck. In ambulance surgeon was called to pich Mr. Murphy's head, and then both is and the bartender were taken to is station-house. As they lined up fore the sergeant they concluded nous make charges against each other and sey were not locked up. LOVAS ONCE, NOT NOW.	o'clock last night, when the matter was brought to the attention of Sergt Colgan, of the lower Fulton street station. By breaking a window, he effected an entrance and found the old man lying upon a dirly, threadbare mat, close to the front door. He was still alive but unconscious. An ambulance was called and the doctor, on making an examination, said Brannigan would probably die very shortly. He was removed to St. Peter's Hospital, where he died within an hour after being admitted. Sergt, Colyan, recalling the burglary, thought that the old man might have been visited again. He examined all the entrances carefully, but found them all securely fastened. What caused the old man's death only an autopsy will disclose. The doctors think that he had an attack of heart trouble, but the neighbors express the belief that he was starved to death. As Branigan left no other relatives, his estate, unless he left a will, will now go to his daughter, whom he ejected from his home. FURGUESON ON THE STAND. The "Czar of New Utrecht" Tells About His Gas Plant. Cornelius Furgeson, known as the Czar of New Utrecht, took the stand in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Smith, to-day. It was in the suit brought by Walter Parfitt, a taxpayer, for the annulment of a contract between the town and the Kings County Gas Company. The company was made defendants together with Furgueson and the other members of the Town Improvement Board. The allegation had been made of the existence of collusion, as all the fields in the district are brightly illuminated, for which the taxpayers had to bear. It was shown that there was a gas-lamp for nearly every inhabitant of the town and that no berefit was derived from	without informing his parents some weeks previous to Sept. 25, though he continued to leave his home at 7 A. M. and return at the regular time at night for his dinner. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sept. 25 he hurried to his home and told his mother to get his best clothes together at once, as he started immediately for the West. She did not know what to make of this announcement, as she had not been taken into his councils. She left the room for a moment and when she returned he was gone. He has not been heard from since that day. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are stricken with grief. They describe Charlie as fourteen years and six months old, rather sturdily built, light complexion, brown hair, minus two front upper teeth, wore a soft fell hat, light trousers, black vest and gray sack coat. Mr. Martin told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Charlie was continually pouring over railroad timetables and talking of killing Indians and going West. He feels confident that his son has taken Horace Greeley's advice, and has requested the Chief of Brooklyn's police to send out an alarm to all points west of the Mississippi. Charlie borrowed 14 from an aunt a day or two before his departure, and it is not known whether he had more money. You read the Evening World! STRIKERS MAKE THREATS. Extra Police Guard Ordered for a Brooklyn Shoe Factory. The police are on guard to-day at Lane's shoe factory, Fifth avenue and Sterling place, Brooklyn, where the hands went on strike yesterday. This is the second strike there within six weeks. The men who went out yesterday were those employed to take the	Chic. R. J. & Pac. 604, 604, 604, 604, C. C. & St. Louis. 204, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 304, 3	the Steamer New York. George Gould was served with legal papers by a clerk from the office of Attorney L. J. Morrison, of 4 Broadway, when he left the steamer New York this morning. Mr. Gould would not discuss the matter, but his attorney, Winslow S. Pierce, said tent the papers related to a claim against Mr. Gould, Russell Sage and others, made by a bond company or association in the interest of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum of St. Louis. Lawyer Thomas G. Shearman has brought suit against the Gould heirs in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to recover the amount he claims to be due him from the estate of the late Jay Gould for legal services rendered the later. 10,000 TO STRIKE. Clonkmakers in Favor of a General Cessation of Work. Ten thousand cloakmakers will probably go on strike on Monday, to enforce the advance of 25 per cent. In their wages, which they claim the manufacturers have failed to pay, and also to stop certain of the bosses from making cloaks for four drins whose shops ware struck four weeks ago. A mass-meeting of all the cloakmakers of this city and vicinity, has been called for to-night in Cooper Union Hall. The question of a general strike will be nut to yote. The Cloakmakers and Operators' Union comprises a membership of 10,000 men and wainen, who have already favored a general strike. Two thousand who were employed by Julius Stein & Co., A Beller & Co., Louis Grauer & Co. and Max Heller & Sons, have been on strike for a month in support of the cutters, and for the enforcement of the new scale of wages. A consensus of opinion among all hands favors a general strike as the only means	transactions. It is also reported that the firm a soine way mixed up with the fail of the Indianapolis National Earls, that an accounting with that institute is yet to be made. It is stated definitely that Coffin Stanton settled all their obligations the American Loan and Trust Company which failed in 1891, soon after the ceiver took held of that concern. Tindebtedness to the American Loan Trust Company amounted to $86,000 demand loans, secured by collateral sisting of water, country and raily bonds of town all over the country. Coffin & Stanton's relations with J Y. McKane will, it is said, be an inesting matter for investigation. The rm was loaded up with Greed 5 per cent, Local Improvem bonds, which they offered to bankers set the country from Male to Geory through the medium of a draim which they kept on the road. It is that no cash was ever paid for it bunds by Affin & Stanton, but that. Kane deposited them with the firm dispose of as hey could. Inquiries came to several of the leing lanks here, from country institutions as to the value of these Gravend to bonds. In many instances (were successful in placing substantons as to the value of these Gravend tongs, in the country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a club to make good interest 2 or 3 per cent, higher also fine the small bankers a club to make good interest. The couponey "causht, on," but when loans matured, it was simply a case renewal or take the sequining a less than the amount of the Dan. Here is a sample of one of Coffit Stanton's offerings: City of deference in the faiding 5 per cent. The country for money was that they well to give the small bankers a cluster of the best and the amount of the Dan. Here is a sample of one of Coffit Stanton's offerings: City of deference in a relating 5 per cent. The country for money was that they well to stanton's offerings: City of the serial to a faint of the Dan. Here is a sample of one of Coffit Stanton's offerings: City of the centlines and a serial contesting the serial between the Allegheny Mountains and ness, Irregularity? Aptain Early had a detachment on duty all night. During the of the night several windows the strikers and ten arrests the strikers, and ten arrests the trikers, and ten arrests the trikers, and the police were a strikers, and the police were. The same condition prevails the men are sullen and deterory to people expect to bring a g of workmen to the factory of the week. The strikers say if the week. The strikers say if the week the strikers the strikers of the same the strikers at the same the sa

Wall Street Notes.

The Pinannial Chronicle computes the gross establings of seventy-three railreads for the third words of September at F.35, 75, 26, a decrease of 1242.75, or 2.19 per cent. thirty-five roads for the fourth week of September report 48,05,55, a decrease of 1164.576, or 2.54 per cent. forty-one roads for September report 48,750,811, a decrease of 116,95,99, or 2.31 per cent. The steamship Columbia, which arrived from Hamburg yesterday, brought 100,000 marks, consigned to Lazard Freres. The imports, exclusive of specie, at the port of New York for the week were $5.806.804 of which $1.064.01 were dry goods and $5.706.801 were dry goods and $5.706.801 were dry goods and $5.706.801 will be imports were $5.818.841, of which $1.108.200 were dry goods and $6.818.841, of which $1.108.200 were dry goods and $6.818.841, of which merchandlas.

The imports of the general responsibility of the organ.

and Borrowed $3,000.

Representations.

Bay State Gas, which has been one of the active specialties in the Bostom market, and which was placed in the unitsted department of the Stock Exchange this morning, opened at 39-38, fell to 30, rose to 32 and reacted to 31.

Money I per cent, on call and 215 and 38-38, fell to 30, rose to 32 and reacted to 31.

Money I per cent, on call and 215 and 48-34 at 35 or sight drafts, bills and 48-34 at 48 for sight drafts, bills and 48-34 at 48-34 at 48 for sight drafts, bills and 48-34 at 48 for sight drafts, bills and 48-34 at 48 for sight drafts, bills and 48-34

woman's great enemy, dis-

"That or some other deAn attachment for $12,000 was granted to-day by Justice Lawrence against property in this city belonging to Cofcausing irregularity and other in & Stanton, limited, of London, in favor of Martin's Bank, limited, of London, in recover the value of a draft made by Coffin & Stanton, limited, June "Take warning in time! Shart, payable to the order of Martin's Bank, limited.

Wanted in Cleveland.

Wanted in Cleveland.

Anxious to Know Their Value.

Chicago Gas Was the Leader in the Talked of a $500,000 Bond Sale The Defunct Firm Had About $250,- He Shot "Woods" Through the 000 Worth Outstanding.

Is to Be Asked For. .

James S. Negley, of New Jersey.

President of the Mexican Trust and Investment Company, was arrested to-day by Deputy Sheriff Walgering, upon being asked in Wall street this morn.

Just what the firm of Coffin & Stan-little wire-covered cages called 'rooms' yesterday, intend to do, is the question at the Wayerly Hold about 1 o'clock this morning when they were awakene. day by Deputy Sheriff Walgering, upon an order issued by Justice Lawrence, of the Supreme Court.

Negley's arrest is the result of an action brought against him by Albert H. King, President of the King Locomotive Works, of New Jersey.

He alleges that Negley secured $2,000 from blind by fraud. In his affiliatic Mr. King swears that about October, 1896, his Company desired to sell $300,000 worth of corporate bonds, secured by a trust mortgage on the Company's property.

Define asked in Wall street this morn to the morning when they were awakened by the report of a pistod, and, rushing to the trust morning when they were awakened by the report of a pistod, and, rushing out into the halls, found a man dead, with a 35-calibre fullet through this heart, and another man walking calind; bown the stairs with a revolver in his hour before under the name of "Woods." The murdered man had registered an hour before under the name of "Woods." The other had come in at the same calculated on before the receivorship became known.

There were many callers at the office, and hud been assigned to room 8t. Night Clerk John F. Broderick insearch, and hud been assigned to room 8t. Night Clerk John F. Broderick insearch the name "Morjarty" for this sarred the name of "Woods." the province and

About that time be delines South of the Mortan True and a south of the Mortan True and a south of the Mortan True and a south of the Mortan True and the Mortan True a attachment for $12,000 was granted

Befriended Had Robbed Him.

Heart, Fled and Was Captured.

Thought to Be Insane.

clerk.

Up on the third floor, in room 88, where he had been assigned, "Woods" lay in bed, partially dressed.

"There's the man that has got my money, shouled Fagin, as he and the clerk entered the room.

"The man is dead crazy," answered "Woods," as he half raised himself in his bed. "His money is in his own pocket."

one brought suits for heavy dame that was the one of Stanton's That will upset the theory of Detroit detectives that Trombley had a part in the firm would pay 10 cents Italian's Awful Crime.

ABSOLUTELY PURE. OUR TERMS:

Manufacturers. BROOKLYN.

JERSEY CITY, NEWARK. 36 Newark Ave. 230 Market St.

PATERSON, ELIZABETH, 192 Main St 103 First St. DR. TOBIAS'

Venetian Horse Liniment

Tobias' Derby Condition Powders

COFFEE, THE GILLIES COFFEE COMPY

"PERFECT MANHOOD"

ny system of local absorption, without drugging. Consultation free. Office hours DR. H. TRESKOW.

DIED. HARDY -JOHN HARDY, on the 5th Inst. Relatives and friends requested to attend

BOY'S LIFE IS IN DANGER.

Man Accused of Assaulting Him Arraigned and Held. Robert J. Cummings, thirteen years old, of 137 Grove street, Jersey City, was assaulted on Sept. 30 by Christian Shaffor of 466 Henderson street. The boy in a critical condition. Shaffer was in in a critical condition. Shaffer was arrosted and arraigned before Justice Potts to-day on the charge of atroctous assumit. He sain the boy had been throwing stones at him, and all he did was to take the stones from the boy and shap him in the face.

The boy says Shaffer kicked him is the soic and heat him without cause. Shaffer was held to await the result of the boy's muricipal.

SAYS HE DECEIVED HER.

A Rahway Girl Says George Keer, of Camden, Arrested.

(Special to the Heming World.) ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 6.—George Ger, and twenty-four, was arrested a his home at Camden, N. J., last night Scient Walsh, of this city, on the artiage, Margiret E. Wilson, aged citiest, of Ranway Keer was brough there and will have hearing next Saturday. Meanwhile is held in $1.000 hal. His father is remait of the railroad shoes in Cam-

83,500 Fire in Elizabethport. (Reputat to The Receiting World b ELIZAMENTE N. J. Oct. 6.—Wallace's gra-vers and protons store, Its Livingston street,

Work Sent from New York Rejected The Executive Committee of the striking shirte- eral hundred dollars. He will be held to await de-the arrival of officers from Cleveland.

